

The Goring

*'A Taste of Cornwall at The Goring' - a summer seafood celebration with a little help from Jack and Rick Stein
June to September 2017*

(March 2017)

What we love about Cornwall: Lobsters, freshly caught fish, edible seaweed, the beach, pretty fishing ports, seashells, Rick Stein, Jack Stein, local art - and memories of seaside holidays.

What we do not love about Cornwall: Crawling down the M4/5 in a desperate bid to escape London.

Now, thanks to The Goring, you can have all that's fabulous about Cornwall, all summer long, here in London. Thus missing the less-than-fabulous parts.

Here's how: This summer, the Cornish Riviera comes to Belgravia - as The Goring brings the best produce, the best fish, the best wines, the best lobsters and the best local chefs up the M5 - especially for Londoners to enjoy.

Launching on 2 June, 'A Taste of Cornwall at The Goring' is a three-month long celebration of the sea, amongst the lush foliage and flowers of the hotel's gardens. The veranda will be transformed into a Cornish fish restaurant with a stylish yet relaxed summer vibe. And the beach? That will be taken care of too.

The Goring's Michelin-starred Chef Shay Cooper is working with Rick Stein and his son, executive chef Jack Stein, creating a scrumptious Cornish-inspired menu, bursting with lobster, crab and the freshest fish imaginable. All served in the sunshine with a glass of rosé. Close your eyes and you can almost hear the sea.

The Goring's Chief Executive Jeremy Goring (whose mother is from St Ives) comments:

"I just love Cornwall – it's so important to all my family, so to bring it to London is fab! We may not have the sea, but we will have the essence of Cornwall right here in our back garden. I can't wait."

Notes to editors:

The Goring was opened by Otto Goring in 1910. It is now the only five-star hotel in London that is owned and run by the family that built it. Jeremy Goring is the fourth Goring to run The Goring since his great-grandfather opened it. Deep in the heart of Belgravia, just behind Buckingham Palace, The Goring is within strolling distance of the Royal Parks and the best shops, theatres and galleries in town. In 2015, The Goring completed a top-to-toe renovation, in time for its 105th birthday on 2 March 2015. Contemporary design and innovation now combine seamlessly with the charm and elegance of British heritage. Above all, The Goring reflects one family's passion for quality – whose members have prided themselves on providing comfort, good food and drink and faultless, individual service, for over a hundred years. In January 2013 The Goring was granted a Royal Warrant of appointment to HM The Queen for Hospitality Services.
