

The Goring

The Roaring Twenties

Here in 1920s Britain we are all witnessing great economic prosperity. Art Deco and Surrealism are undergoing astonishing popularity on this side of the Atlantic. Across the waves, George Gershwin writes Rhapsody in Blue.

Best of all, AA Milne has published Winnie the Pooh.

The really good news is that The Goring, one of London's most modern hotels, is only £1.20 per night.

Those were the days! But hold on..... rooms are still only £1.20 per night!

Stay for three nights or more in June 2010, and you will enjoy one night at the price of the 1920s. On top of this, you are invited to the bar on the first night for a drink at the 1920s rate.
