Dream days become reality at The Goring

ROMANCE AT THE GORING

London's last remaining family-owned luxury hotel. Crafted over a century by one family, The Goring is the genuine article – a grand hotel with impeccable manners and a subtle streak of wit and wonder. Just the place to begin a lifetime of happiness.

Neither too big to feel lost, nor too small to feel cramped, The Goring is just the right size to offer the magic of intimacy for your wedding or civil partnership.

Our up-to-date family values and bespoke approach mean that weddings at The Goring are not only exquisite, but also fun.

BELGRAVIA BRIDES & BRIDEGROOMS

Just a royal wave from Buckingham Palace, there is no address more exclusive to get married. Right in the heart of the action, The Goring is no stranger to big weddings and high society.

With a number of beautiful churches within easy reach of the hotel and both Westminster Register Office and Kensington & Chelsea Register Office only short drives away, as well as four licensed rooms in the hotel itself, there is plenty of choice when planning a wedding at The Goring.

IN OUR EXPERT HANDS

Samantha Lopez and Nele Budeners, our resident wedding experts, are at your service to create your unique wedding celebration. With a deep understanding of gorgeous events and how no two weddings are ever the same, Samantha and Nele will be at your side to guide and inspire, always with an eye on the detail.

The Goring is famed for its fleet of fabulous footmen. To give your wedding a touch of grandeur every couple getting married at the hotel has their own footman for the day. On-hand to help out as required they can throw confetti, help seat your guests or simply look gorgeous in their scarlet tailcoats.

MAGIC IN THE AIR

The Goring's ravishing private rooms are each elegantly designed, providing romantic backdrops to your celebration. We believe that small is beautiful allowing you to share your wedding with your nearest and dearest.

When couples choose to take their vows at The Goring, there is always a touch of magic in the air.

You and your guests can expect the unexpected, starting with the hotel's surprising garden, one of the finest – and largest – private gardens in London. An elegant setting for an urban wedding.

THE VERANDA

Overlooking the garden, this glass pavilion has ornate décor and windows that draw back on sunny days to give the impression of being outside.

Licensed for wedding ceremonies with up to 30 guests and suitable for receptions with up to 30 seated or 50 standing.

THE DRAWING ROOM

With its hand-embroidered, silk-lined walls and sparkling chandelier, The Drawing Room brings a touch of glamour to proceedings.

Licensed for wedding ceremonies with up to 20 guests and suitable for receptions with up to 12 seated or 20 standing.

THE GARDEN ROOM

The Goring's largest private room is panelled in rich woods and oxblood leather.
The adjoining conservatory area which leads out to the garden from a private patio.

Licensed for wedding ceremonies with up to 50 guests and suitable for receptions with up to 44 seated or 100 standing.

THE DINING ROOM

Bathed in natural light by day and sumptuously aglow from the Swarovski chandeliers at night, The Dining Room provides an elegant setting for a celebration.

Licensed for wedding ceremonies with up to 60 guests and suitable for receptions with up to 100 seated or 150 standing.

EATING & DRINKING

The holder of a Michelin star and three AA Rosettes, The Goring offers an impeccable dining experience. Under the direction of Executive Chef Richard Galli, fresh, high-quality ingredients are sourced from suppliers across the British Isles in a commitment to serving the finest British food.

Chef Richard will be on hand to craft a customised menu for your wedding breakfast, as well as Head Sommelier Jean-Baptiste Lemoine who will match wines from the hotel's cellars to give your celebration a true sense of occasion.

Have a favourite tittle or a cocktail that is special to the two of you? Tiago Mira, The Goring Bar's master mixologist, can create a drink specially for your wedding for a truly unique toast.

NOT JUST THE WEDDING

THE NIGHT BEFORE

For a great Goring send off, spend the night before your wedding in The Royal Suite. Perhaps an intimate family dinner in The Drawing Room or a Champagne pyjama party, before retiring to the two-bedroom suite to rest and prepare.

Come the big day, enjoy a Bucks Fizz breakfast as your make-up artist, hairdresser and photographer work their magic, before the footmen escort you to the front door.

THE WEDDING NIGHT

When the last cork has popped and the final tune has played on the dancefloor, retire to a beautiful Belgravia Suite for your first night as a married couple.

With a bottle of Champagne on ice waiting and the promise of breakfast in bed and an extra late check-out, start married life as you mean to go on.
