

DECK THE HALLS

The Goring unveils cracking Christmas offerings to delight this festive season

LONDON (October 2023) – This festive season, London’s much-loved luxury hotel The Goring will unveil a host of cracking Christmas activities bound to make a splash. Move over clichéd Christmas tree collaborations - this Christmas, The Goring is going one step further with a giant walk-in snow globe, set to be unveiled by legendary hotel mascot, Teddy the Shetland Pony (@teddytheshetland).

Taking centre stage in The Goring’s garden, the giant snow globe has been designed and scented by British scent mavericks Jo Loves. From 24th November - 8th December, guests at The Goring will be able to stroll through the red carpet entrance, uncovering a world of white dusted fir trees and red velvety ribbons, infused with Jo Loves’ Pomelo scent - evoking the nostalgia of Christmas’ goneby. Big enough for two people to step inside and complete with vintage polaroid cameras for your memento to take away, The Goring’s snow globe is bound to be the place to be seen this Christmas.

For those wanting to extend the festive fun, a brand new Festive Afternoon Tea with Bollinger Rosé awaits. Fluffy finger sandwiches, freshly-baked sultana-flecked scones, Christmas inspired pastries and The Goring’s irresistible homemade mince pies. Oh, and not forgetting the takeaway treats including clementine and almond shortbread, hazelnut praline and dark chocolate cookies, and spiced ginger snaps: the perfect accompaniment to a spiced (or spiked - your choice) hot chocolate to enjoy in front of the roaring fire.

A sparkling staycation choice for the festive season, The Goring’s Three-Night Christmas Experience will ensure a Christmas like no other for guests staying from 24th - 27th December. Inclusive of three nights’ accommodation, the package also includes a champagne arrival, daily breakfast, and Michelin-starred feasting: the Christmas Eve supper, Christmas Day extravaganza and the Boxing Day lunch bound to cure post-Christmas blues (and those annoying post-Christmas sore heads). True to traditional Goring form - a hotel that doesn’t do things by halves - a host of witty and wonderful Christmas surprises await.

“Christmas at The Goring is set to be a real cracker this year: probably our best yet. From our loyal return guests to our littlest VIPs, we’ve got something to delight everyone this festive season,” says Jeremy Goring, CEO of The Goring.

###

Notes for the Editors

Giant snow globe

Available to visit from 24th November until 8th December in The Goring's garden. The globe is open to the public and hotel guests.

Festive Afternoon Tea with Bollinger Rosé

Served in The Veranda - Monday to Sunday, 12pm - 6pm and in The Dining Room - Saturday, 1pm, 1.30pm, 3pm and 3.30pm from 27th November - 2nd January. From £95 per person. Reserve: here

The Goring's 3-Night Christmas Experience

For stays from 24th - 27th December 2023. From £4,035. This includes three nights' accommodation, champagne and chocolates on arrival, full English breakfast, Christmas Eve Dinner, Christmas Day Lunch or Dinner and Boxing Day Lunch or Dinner. Book: here.

About The Goring

The Goring was opened in 1910 by Otto Goring and is now the only five-star luxury hotel in London that is owned and run by the family that built it. Deep in the heart of Belgravia, close to Buckingham Palace, The Goring is within strolling distance of the Royal Parks and some of the city's finest shops, theatres and galleries. In January 2013 The Goring was granted a Royal Warrant of appointment to HM The Queen for Hospitality Services and in 2016 The Dining Room was awarded its first Michelin star. The Goring reflects one family's passion for quality, whose members have prided themselves on providing comfort, good food and drink and the most attentive service for over a hundred years. www.thegoring.com